Sakura: Have you seen the movie, "Kiseki no Ringo"?

Jun: No, I haven't. (1)

Sakura: Yes. The farmer *succeeded in growing apples without *pesticides. It was very difficult and it took about ten years.

Jun: I heard about it, too. (2) Oh, last Tuesday I saw the *main characters, Kanno Miho and Abe Sadao, on TV. In that program, they visited the farmer, a restaurant and a market in Hirosaki.

Sakura: Our family watched the program, too. We became interested in the movie. So my mother and I went to see it yesterday.

Jun: (3)

Sakura: My mother and I were so moved that we cried during the movie. And in the movie, we saw *familiar places like Mt. Iwaki, Iwaki River and Fujita Kinen Teien. (4)

Jun: That sounds interesting. I want to see it, too. Tell me more about the movie.

Sakura: I would like to, but I think I shouldn't. If you know all of the story, you will feel the movie is *boring when you see it.

Jun: (5) I should go and see it on Sunday.

4 次の英文を読んで、後に続く問に答えなさい。(4 1点)

It was summer in 1992. I was on a six-day business trip to China and Japan. After finishing a business meeting, I was in *Beijing Airport to get on the *final flight to Japan. That was my next country (1)to visit. *Unfortunately, a *typhoon was coming then and the airport *staff told us that the airport would be closed and all the *passengers would have to stay in the *terminal building for about two hours. I said to myself, "I may not be lucky *from now on."

My flight from Beijing was several hours late and arrived at Narita International Airport around 11:00 at night. I was not lucky again. All the hotels near the airport were full and didn't have any rooms that night. So I had to stay in the terminal building for one night. I said (2)the same thing to myself again.

The next day, I was in Tokyo Station. I was trying to get on the Shinkansen to Nagoya, (3)because I had another important business meeting in Nagoya that afternoon. The station is very big. There were more than fifty *platforms and all the *signs were in Japanese. I asked some people the way to my train. But no one spoke any English. I had only about ten minutes before the train started, but I didn't know where to go. *In a panic, I went to a ticket office and explained (4)my problem to the ticket *clerk there. But he just gave me a *blank look. He didn't understand my English.

I couldn't wait for someone to help me. So I pointed to my ticket and bags. A *miracle happened. Slowly, he started to understand. Then, (5), he took one of my bags and my arm. For about five minutes, the clerk and I were (7)(run) to the platform, just like *racehorses. (6)(soon / I / on / got / as / as / the train) with all my bags, the door closed. Then the train left the station. This time I said to myself, "Oh! (7)"

I was sorry that I didn't have any time to say thank you. So after I returned home in the United States, I (1)(send) a thank-you letter to Tokyo Station. I hoped that it would get to the ticket clerk.

A few months later, (8)another miracle happened. I had a letter from him. (9)One of his friends working in the same office helped him with his English letter. It said something like this: "I am happy to help you. But that was just part of our job. We want all of our passengers to enjoy their trip, especially passengers from foreign countries. We hope that we can help you soon again."
